Note: Refer below for the Instructions for filling up the application number in the OMR sheet

The image shows an OMR sheet for marking the application number. On the left, there is a grid of circles for marking the digits of the application number. The top row shows the digits 0, 0, 7, 5. Below each digit, there are four circles representing the possible digits for that position. A red arrow points to the first circle of the first digit (0). The right side of the image contains the following instructions:

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Mark your application number carefully in four digits.
2. Any mistake in marking your number will disqualify you.
3. To shade the circles use Black/Blue Ball point Pen. Shade the circle completely.
4. Do not fold / tear/ clip the sheet or scribble on the sheet
5. Each question has only one correct answer. Shading more than one option will result in zero mark
6. There is no negative marking

Below the instructions, there are two sections: "Correct Method" and "Wrong Methods".

Correct Method shows four circles, each with a solid black dot in the center.

Wrong Methods shows four circles with different shading or markings: a circle with a cross, a circle with a dot in the center, a circle with a checkmark, and a circle with a scribble.
